COUNTRY CLUB

19th Hole News - August 2005

Lakeville, MA—Mike Harris couldn't find the fairway in the final round of the LeBaron Hills Open. But he had no problem finding the winners circle. Despite erratic driving, Harris carded a 4-under 68 to win the 2nd annual LeBaron Hills Open by four shots over Geoff Sisk and John Connelly. His three-day total of 15-under 201 earned him $13,000.

"Things escaped me for a while," said Harris, who hit into three fairway bunkers and found long heather on another hole. "You're just not going to make any birdies doing that. I was lucky to get it around and make some pars."

Out of position numerous times, he managed to string together pars on the front side. But once Geoff Sisk threatened his lead, Harris, who played the Nationwide Tour last year, turned on the afterburners, playing his final 10 holes 4-under as he cruised to his third win in four weeks (Michigan and Vermont Opens).

"When it came down to it," said Harris, "down the stretch on the backside side, the confidence level was there and I just hit some great shots when I needed to. The confidence and experience I have really carried me through."

Speaking of confidence and experience, the 40-year-old Sisk appeared primed for his first victory of the season. He began the day three shots back, then made four birdies in his first 12 holes to draw within two shots of Harris.

With Harris 19-under and eyeing a 15-foot birdie putt on the par-4 16th, Sisk, at 11-under, had his own 15-foot birdie bid on the par-3 17th. With the 16th and 17th holes next to each other, Sisk putted first, and raced his putt four feet past the hole.

He then missed his par putt. Harris, meanwhile, canned his downhill putt to increase his margin to four with two holes to play and all but sign his name on the winner's check.

"I was trying to stay aggressive," Sisk said of his birdie putt. "I jammed it a little bit and it ran four feet by. Obviously whenever you don't win, you're disappointed. But it's encouraging. It's start coming slowly. It wasn't good enough, but what are you going to do?"

Former Nationwide Tour player John Connelly raced up the leader board and shared runner-up position with Sisk courtesy of the lowest round of the day, a 4-under 67.

Connelly's round included six birdies, three bogeys, and a closing eagle on the par-5 18th.

Harris receives sponsors exemption into Buick Open...see page 5 for details.

Pro-Am Tournament July 12th

*To the Members and Staff at LeBaron Hills,
Thank you for the part you played in making this year's LeBaron Hills Open so successful.
Tuesday's Pro-Am was a great opportunity for many of you to meet the faces of the Cleveland Golf Tour. We look forward to seeing more of you in 2006.
Las year's course record of 66, set by PGA Tour winner Sean O'Hair, didn't make it through the second round, but LeBaron more than held its own against the best we had to offer, especially the par 4, 2nd hole (the toughest on Tour in 2004).
A special thanks to the entire staff of LeBaron Hills, who were more than willing to lend a helping hand before and during the event.
Here's to many more successful events in the future.
Many thanks,
CGT Staff*

The Summer Camps have been a great success! The first two sessions in July averaged 10 kids and they are all having a great time between golf, swimming and the arts & crafts projects!

The first two advanced Junior Clinics were held in July and we had six students. All the juniors showed great improvement after the three days of instruction and Tom, Rob and Matt welcome anyone interested in the August 3-5 clinic.

Construction Begins

The earth movers have arrived! Phase I construction has begun at The Residences at LeBaron Hills and homes will soon begin emerging. Presales have been proceeding since early spring with select residences remaining for purchase. A total of 62 units are being developed in this first phase, with the first group of homes expected to be complete by year's end.

Jeanne Carey, Jeanne B. Carey Interior Designs, purchased a Hollyberry unit at 13 Bogey Way. (mother of Nancy Archambault, member of LeBaron Hills Country Club. Friends and family have always marveled at Jeanne's flair for decorating and she is thrilled with the large open space that her Hollyberry unit offers. She is presently making plans to decorate yet another new home. Jeanne has also decided that it is also time to "tee up and let it fly" and is excited about the prospect of playing the great game of golf with husband Tom.

The model homes are open daily from 12:00 to 5:00 p.m. Pricing is from $389,000. For more information please call Lisa at 508-947-2893 or visit www.lebaronhomes.com.

With the right concept, fine golf facility and the right development and sales team, this project is well on its way to success!

Dear LeBaron Hills Country Club,

On behalf of the students and faculty of Assowompset School, I would like to thank you for your generous donation of a bicycle. Your gift helped to make the Lakeville Police Department's Bicycle Safety Program a success.

The students in grades one through three attended an assembly about bike safety. After the presentation, the children were asked to draw a poster about safe bike riding practices. Seven girls and seven boys from each grade won a new bike helmet. In addition, every student who entered a poster was eligible to win a bicycle in a drawing. In all, six bikes were awarded to the winners of the raffle. The helmets were made available through a state grant and the bicycles were awarded thanks to generosity such as yours.

The students increased their awareness of the importance of responsible, safe bike riding as the end of the school year approached and summer vacation began. Thanks to the generosity of people like you and to the efforts of the Lakeville Police Department, the children of Assowompset are better equipped to safely enjoy their summer break. Thank you very much.

Sincerely,
Susan LaCamera
Grade 2 Teacher
Assowompset School

HARRIS RECEIVES EXEMPTION INTO BUICK OPEN

Michael Harris received a sponsors exemption into the Buick Open. A sponsors exemption is much more prestigious than qualifying. He was given this exemption by Buick because of his play in the past few weeks. Michael has won the Vermont Open, Michigan Open, LeBaron Hills Open and the Michigan Tournament of Champions. He has won four out of his past five events. This type of exemption is rare however because of his outstanding play and the fact that two of those wins are in his home state of Michigan, where the Buick Open will be played. Michael has more than earned his place in this event. You can find more information on Cleveland's website at www.clevelandgolftour.com.
